What Is Going On Tonight
 Meeting, Lodge No. 22, K. of P., 8 o'clock.

GRAVES NUMBER 567.

List of Soldiers of Various Wars to Be Honored on Memorial Day.

A list of the soldiers' graves in this city which will be decorated by Francis S. Long Post, No. 30, G. A. R., and other organizations, upon Memorial Day, has been prepared by Jerome B. Baldwin. There are in the town of Windham 387 graves of veterans of the different wars of this country. 234 are veterans of the Civil War, 18 of the Spanish war, 33 of the War of 1812, and 23 of the Revolutionary war. The graves of the Civil War veterans are found in the following cemeteries: Willimantic, 172; St. Joseph's, 65; Windham, 40; North Windham, 12.

Comrades Baldwin and Jacobs were at Windham Saturday marking the graves, and the Willimantic cemetery came in for its share of attention Sunday. Mr. Baldwin did the work.

The names and places of burial of the veterans in the vicinity are appended. Any additions or mistakes should be reported to Mr. Baldwin, in order that the proper action may be taken.

South Killingly Exercises.

Many Assemble for Decorating of Graves and Address by Rev. H. E.
 Goodsell.

Escorted by St. James' band, the members of McGreggor post, G. A. R., were at South Killingly Sunday afternoon to conduct Memorial services in honor of the brave men who fought in the Civil war and who are buried in the cemetery in that quiet corner of the town. The services were held at the church were attended by a large number from all points in this vicinity, many going over from Danielson.

The sermon was preached by the Rev. H. B. Goodsell. The ceremony of decorating the graves was like that of former years, and a widespread added degree of solemnity, as the heroes who remain to do honor to their former comrades in arms have grown so few, compared with their numbers of a decade ago.

Willimantic Church Reopened.
 With the return of activity to the village there are many new residents at Willimantic and a widespread desire for Sunday services at the church, which has been closed for a long time. To meet this demand, Rev.
 E. A. Legg conducted a first service Sunday afternoon, and these services are to be continued every Sunday. On the coming Sunday Rev.
 Clarence H. Barber will have charge of the service.

Brooklyn House Burned.
 Roderick Miller Had Just Arrived from Hartford for the Summer.

The Roderick Miller house in the West village at Brooklyn was burned to the ground by a fire that was discovered at about 11 o'clock Saturday morning. While the origin of the fire is uncertain, it is believed to have been caused by sparks blown by the high wind prevailing from a nearby section where caterpillars' nests were being burned off.

There was a fire apparatus with tools to fight the fire, but a quickly formed bucket brigade did effective work in preventing the flames from spreading to adjoining property. Mr.
 Miller, a summer resident, had arrived from Hartford only Friday to occupy the house for the season.

The loss is estimated at from $1,000 to $1,500, exclusive of insurance considerations.

EARLY MORNING FIRE Started in Bed—Believed to Be Due to Smoker.

At about 1:45 Sunday morning the fire department called out to examine a fire in a room at the Roderick Miller house. The fire was confined to a room and was extinguished by the fire department.
